

ibuyer.hk

WholesaleNet is designed for wholesaler, importer, distributor and exporter, handling purchase, receiving, sales, consignment, distribution and logistics services. In addition, it issue full set of export shipping documents, giving exporter easy handling of documentation.

Keep track of product details, Performa, sales contract, purchasing, sales, inventory, stock movement and export documents. Purchasing Vs Sales analysis report, this is used to find out the cheapest product supplier against the generous customer. Hence improving company's sales and profit margin. The outstanding payment report identify the credit level of each customer.

Inventory report group by Item, Brand name and product description. Leftover reports with different grouping, by article no, item, brand name, description, supplier and specification, FIFO, storage breakdown, storage charges calculation, low level alert and stock checking by location.

Reports on all stock-in and stock-out movement grouping by item, customer, brand name, supplier, delivery order, recipient and job order. This is used to act as an audit checking against supplier deliveries and customer invoice amount or quantity.

Expiry date alert avoid expires and waste of day limited items. Storage days report reduced the storage day and hence minimizes wastage percent.

Activity log to keep added or changed data by which user or PC, time of editing, before and after change record.

We also provide cloud solution. Such that our customer can use the Microsoft Azure cloud computing data center rented by us. They can remote access their own data 7x24 over internet with our support, services & maintenance. Customer is able to access their database anywhere from the world.